TURBO ESPRIT

You are a special agent equipped with a Lotus Turbo Esprit. An international ring of drug smugglers are about to make a huge delivery of heroin, and must be stopped at all costs. The drugs are stored at houses in the city, and will be taken by cars to an armoured van which will be cruising around the center. A raid on the van or houses would certainly tip them off leaving drugs in circulation. You must therefore try and pick-off the cars one by one before they make their drop, and then try to stop the van before it escapes. The delivery cars will be backed-up by 'hit' squads - so watch out! A 3-D simulation car chase.

Item #1019 $12.95

Scuba Dive

You take the part of the Scuba Diver trying to reach pearls and other treasures in undersea caverns. The waters are full of sharks, rays & other fish, & to be touched by any means instant death. In addition you must pass a giant octopus to gain entrance to the caverns, & your oxygen supply is limited. The graphics are absolutely stunning, the game is quite brilliant!

Item #1009 $12.95

COMBAT LYNX

This air-to-ground battle simulation is written in pure machine code. We recommend it for the pure excitement of a shoot-em-up action packed game. Lots of jets, helicopters, ground forces shooting at you. Once you get the hang of coping with everything, it's possible to play a game of high strategy which involves not only arcade skills but those of forward planning. For the strategy minded individuals, look forward to hours of fun, while those of you who prefer something instant and fast, choose skill level 4 and hang onto your hats!
